Eagles Nest Retreat is located in the heart of breathtaking Ouray, Colorado. Known to visitors as the “Gem of the Rockies,” Ouray offers an unforgettable sanctuary of rest, recreation, and restoration. Nestled high in the Rockies at an elevation of 7,800 feet, the town is only one-fourth mile wide and one-half mile long. So, not only will you enjoy the beauty of the mountains, but also an intimate, comfortable, small-town feeling. Surrounding Ouray are towering cliffs rising 5,000 feet above street level and the Uncompahgre National Forest. Together, they are situated in the heart of the San Juan Mountains of southwestern Colorado. Eagles Nest offers a variety of services to our pastors, their families, and church—retreats, seminars, housing facilities—at a reasonable cost for vacation times and counseling support. Each unit has a queen-size bed and private bathroom facilities. COST: $40/night donation to the ministry for the use of a unit.

Our Family C.A.R.E. program is based at our 14-acre facility located in Twin Lakes, Colorado and looks over Mount Elbert and Mount Massive, the two tallest mountains in Colorado. This program focuses on working with sponsored ministry couples. Our facilities offer two 2-story log cabins for housing during their stay. (Top floor is a one bedroom suite; the bottom is a two bedroom suite.) These facilities were designed to provide an inspiring place of “retreat” from the norms of our typical, busy lifestyles. They provide the blessed opportunity to relax, reflect, and re-evaluate. This opens the door for a sweet communion with the Lord that bring discovery, re-discovery, and powerful change to those things that prevent us from being effective and Spirit-led in our families, churches, and communities. The area surrounding the facilities offers many activities, such as hiking, fishing, skiing, sightseeing, rafting, or simply sitting with a cup of coffee or hot tea and taking in the beauty and majesty of God’s great creation.

COST: Donation basis.
